

The Harlem Valley Chamber has partnered with Ledgewood Kennels and the Hudson Valley DockDogs to raise funds for scholarships for the four local high schools located in our area. We firmly believe that in today's economic times that helping students to continue their collegiate education is an integral part of doing business in the Harlem Valley. Proceeds from this event will be used for scholarships for graduating students from Webutuck, Pine Plains, Millbrook and Dover Plains.

There are several ways for you to help support this worthy cause. Primary sponsorships are available, as well as, sponsors for each of the dog show classes and events. Business may elect to set up a booth during the festival, and donations can be made to help offset the Chamber's expenses.
